

The poster features a dark, atmospheric scene of a man and a woman walking away from the camera down a long, dimly lit hallway. The hallway is lined with numerous doors on both sides, and a single light fixture hangs from the ceiling, casting a soft glow. The overall mood is mysterious and suspenseful. At the top of the poster, the faces of the man and woman are shown in a close-up, partially obscured by a dark, red-tinted overlay.
