

Discussion Questions for The Fall and Rise of Peter Stoller
by M Pepper Langlinais

1. Though the book is written in third person, it is told from the title character's point of view. How do you think that influences or colors the book? How do you think other characters would tell the story differently?
2. Is Peter a sympathetic character? What do you or don't you like about him? Are there other characters you like more?
3. What is this novel's greatest strength? Its greatest weakness?
4. Is the ending to this book settled enough for you or did you wish for more resolution? If you had to extend the ending, or write a different ending, what would you want to happen?
5. Is this book plot driven or character driven? Do you wish there were more of one or the other element?
6. If you had to describe the book in just one or two words, what would they be?
7. How would you categorize this book? What genre is it? Where in a bookstore would you look for this book? What other authors or books are similar in tone, style, or content?
8. Would you recommend the book to others? Why or why not?
9. Would you read more books in this series?